

Theatre Arts Department Honors Program Requirements

In order to complete a BA degree with Honors in Theatre Arts, students must:

- Complete all requirements for the University Honors Program.
- Complete at least 9 semester hours of Honors courses in the Theatre Arts Department.
 1. Six of these hours must be in regular courses offered on a Theatre Arts Department number (049) and taught by a tenure track faculty member or a continuing lecturer. Any course may be designated an honors course with the permission of the instructor. One of these courses must be in an academic or diversity area; these courses include Playscript Analysis (in a section taught by a tenure track faculty member or a lecturer), Theatre History, Cultural Diversity and Identity, and all dramaturgy, dramatic theory and dramatic literature courses.
 2. Three of these hours are completed with an Honors Thesis.
- Complete their degree program with a cumulative 3.33 GPA in Theatre Arts Department courses.
- Those who wish to complete a creative Honors project must:
 1. Be a Theatre Arts Theatre major and remain a Theatre Art major while completing the Honors project;
 2. Complete at least one Theatre Arts Honors course before the project will be approved;
 3. Have both Theatre Arts Honors courses completed or under way in the semester in which the project is scheduled;
 4. Apply for approval of the project by April 1 of the year before it will be scheduled. Projects are not guaranteed a production slot.

Students planning to complete the Honors Program are encouraged to indicate this intention to the department honors advisor and to the Honors Program itself before their final year of study.

Revision approved 9/1/2010